CYBERCAFE

Jenny Baines, who runs the Cybercafe, reports that things have 'really picked up' after the summer holidays. 30-50 youngsters visit each day to use the 5 PCs with internet connection, play pool, table football, play stations and an X-box with a variety of games, watch TV, chat, drink coffee and eat snacks.

There are opportunities for volunteer supporters to talk and show the love of God. Peter Wallis has undertaken to keep in contact with Jenny and bring us news and requests from the Cybercafe.
