DIOCESAN AND DEANERY EVENTS

Vocation Matters: "Up!" If you've ever watched BBC's The Royle Family, you'll know Jim Royle to be the classic 'couch potato'. An animated equivalent might be Homer Simpson. Have you ever found yourself going in that direction? A growing slothfulness; an underlying misanthropy? Well, it's probably not uncommon, especially if we're not praying regularly. A lack of prayer can lead us to be 'tuned out' to what God is calling us to. The Lord's simple command to Jonah may get us moving again though. 'Up'! Yes, it's cold, dark, and the middle of winter, but our walk with Jesus never stops. Don't let the darkness get the better of us. Keep the prayer going. Keep moving forward.

Exploring St Mark's Gospel: The next session takes place on Wednesday 28th January 2015 looking at Ministry in Galilee and the Road to Jerusalem: Part Two.

This will be held at the Church of the Immaculate Conception, Stroud @ 7.30pm

Celebrating Consecrated Life: Bishop Declan invites us to join him and the Religious Communities and Consecrated men and women of our diocese on Sunday 1st February 2015 @ 6.00pm in Clifton Cathedral. All are welcome.

Celebrating Marriage: Bishop Declan has invited the whole Diocesan community especially married couples to join him at the Celebration of Marriage Eucharist in Clifton Cathedral on Saturday 14th February 2015 at 12noon as part of National Marriage Week (7-14 February).

Rite of Election: There is a Mass on Saturday 21st February 2015 in Clifton Cathedral, Bristol @ 11.00am for those who are taking part in the Rite of Election program and their Catechists.

Marriage Encounter weekend: Pope Francis says "Married life is beautiful and must be protected". Why not treat yourselves and your marriage to a Marriage Encounter Weekend in 2015? A Weekend enables couples to grow in their love for each other. It is also open to priests and religious who want to renew the relationship with their people. A Weekend is a time to rediscover romance and the joy of being married. It is not a retreat, therapy or counselling. It is a unique way for you to revitalise marriage away from the distractions, tensions and routine of everyday life. The next Weekend in our diocese is 27th Feb – 1st March, at Lydiard House, Swindon. For further dates and information or to book a place, please visit the web site www.wvme.org.uk or 'phone Ian & Tessa MacCallum 01249 656145.
